deville Acts and Robert Harron in "An Old Fashioned Young Man,"

The bill of Kein vaudeville and Triangle photo-plays which appears at the Davis the last haif of this week promises to be one of the best of the senson. The headine attraction is an act that has appeared all over the world. The Valdares, three dashing young lades and a funny comedian, presenting a clean cut singing and presenting a clear cut singing and comedy trick excling performance. Another good act is Tom Moore and Stasia who offer a comedy satire entitled. The Dresm Girl Miss Moore wears some of the handsomest gowns on the vaudeville stage and she makes numerous changes with lightning rapidity. Leonard Murray and Mrs. Charles are charges with lightning rapidity. The third act is Vardona and Perry in a contedy singing and talking skit that is different. The Triangle feature on Matinee at 2.15, 10 and 15 cents. Evenings at 6.45 and 3.45, 10, 15 and 20 cents. Reserved seats 25 cents.

Harry T. Morey, the virile Vita-graph star, is most attractively cast in The Courage of Silence, in which he plays opposite to Alice Joyce. In this Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature which is the main attraction at the Breed theatre on Friday and Saturday Mr. Morey enacts the role of a devoted husband and father. He becomes infatuated with another man's wife played by Alice Joyce, and when she refuses to run away with him, learning of his family, he journeys to South America. His son's serious illness causes him to
